

CCB Registration – New members

Rev 0.2 12 Jan 2018

This document explains how to register to become a TOURING member in Club Cycliste Beaconsfield (CCB) for the current season.

Please note that Club Cycliste Beaconsfield is a non-profit and volunteer-run organization. For the sake of economy the tool we use for Web-building and registration does not allow a 100% multilingual configuration. Some elements like buttons may appear only in English.

Step 1: go to www.clubcycliste.com. There is a language button in the top-right corner showing the language to optionally switch to.

Step 2: From the main menu, choose "Join Us". You will see the following window

Club Cycliste Beaconsfield PO Box 40503 Kirkland PO, Kirkland, QC H9H 5G8

New Member Policy/Politique du Nouveau Membre

New members must attend a New Member clinic held at the start of the season before joining a group ride.
Les nouveaux membres doivent assister à une clinique pour nouveaux membres qui ont eu lieu au début de la saison avant de se joindre à un groupe.

You must check the Code of Conduct field (not shown in diagram above) and the Waiver field, acknowledging that you will abide by CCB's Code of Conduct. Also, you must check the New Member Clinic field indicating that you accept that all new members must attend a scheduled CCB clinic. When you are finished filling out the fields, press "Next".

Step 4: After checking that all the fields are correct, press "Confirm and proceed with payment".

You should now be receiving an email containing:

- Confirmation of your membership
- A temporary password
- A link to the CCB clinic registration page. If you are a new member or have at least a two year gap since your previous membership, you must attend a clinic before coming on a CCB group ride. Just follow the link in the email to register, or on the club website, select "Our Club" → "Clinics" and follow the procedure.
